

IV.1 INTRODUCTION TO USER INFORMATION FOR MODEL CALIBRATION

Part IV contains information about the methods and programs used to calibrate the models and techniques used in NWSRFS.

Chapter IV.1 contains information about the steps to follow when computing mean areal data values for model calibration.

Chapter IV.2 contains information about determining model parameters.

Chapter IV.4 contains information about the programs used to calibrate models.

Additional information about calibration is available at the following Internet address:

<http://www.nws.noaa.gov/ohd/hrl/calb/calbmain.htm>